THE BOOK:

Paris, 1922. In the frenetic atmosphere of post-war years, during a spectacular auction sale, two antique rings burst in Antoine Maunier's life... They resuscitate tragic destinies of cursed lovers for centuries.

From Rome's decadence to Templar's martyrs, why does history seem to repeat itself implacably?

Which dark power is capable of all violences to grab the rings and ravage once more the present?

Who will break up this hellish cycle?

Get under AMOR's spell

After the "morning wings", Mireille Lesage creates with AMOR her most fascinating work. She opens a new cycle at the frontier of love myth and historical drama.
